DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 8-13 are pending in this office action.

Rejections

2. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior office action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. Claims 8-10 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Matsuzaki et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,289,314).

Regarding claim 8, Matsuzaki et al. teaches an information processing system for processing media contents from a content provider, comprising:

- At least one information processing apparatus for processing accounting information (fig. 2, ref. num 3 and col. 16, lines 3-21, the accounting information is parameters like the coefficient of charge, which are then processed by the terminal in order to properly descramble the scrambled content);
- A control apparatus configured to enable the flow of said media contents from said content provider directly to said at least one information processing apparatus (fig. 2, ref. num 2 and col. 14, lines 35-38); and

Art Unit: 2136

- A master information processing apparatus in communication with said at least one information processing apparatus and said control apparatus (fig. 2, ref. num 2), said master information processing apparatus including:
 - A first transmitter to transmit appropriate proxy account settlement information to said at least one information processing apparatus (col. 14, lines 38-41, fig. 3, ref. num 254, and fig. 3, output "TO SECOND CHARGE MANAGING PORTION 223");
 - A first receiver to receive said accounting information from said at least one information processing apparatus sent in response to said proxy account settlement information (col. 15, lines 12-36, fig. 3, ref. num 251/252, fig. 5, and fig. 3, input "FROM SERVER I/F 24"),
 - Said accounting information related to payment for said media contents (col. 15, lines 24-30),
 - Said media contents received directly by said at least one information processing apparatus from said content provider (col. 14, lines 35-38),
 - Said first receiver generating payment information when said accounting information is processed (col. 16, lines 3-21);
 - A second transmitter to transmit said payment information to said control apparatus (col. 16, lines 18-21); and
 - A second receiver to receive registration conditions from said control apparatus (fig. 2, ref. num 211/221/222/223, received from the "CONTRACT INFO" from the transmitting station),

Art Unit: 2136

- Said registration conditions prepared in response to receiving said payment information from the master information processing apparatus that settles payment for media contents received directly by said at least one information processing apparatus (col. 16, lines 34-59).

Regarding claim 13, Matsuzaki et al. teaches a method for controlling the flow of media contents from a content provider to at least one information processing apparatus, comprising:

- Enabling the flow of said media contents from said content provider directly to said at least one information processing apparatus, which processes accounting information (fig. 2, ref. num 2 and col. 14, lines 35-38 and col. 16, lines 3-21, the accounting information is parameters like the coefficient of charge, which are then processed by the terminal in order to properly descramble the scrambled content); and
- Controlling communication between a master information processing apparatus and said at least one information processing apparatus (fig. 2, ref. num 24 and 25), including:
 - Transmitting appropriate proxy account settlement information from said master information processing apparatus to said at least one information processing apparatus (col. 14, lines 38-41, fig. 3, ref. num 254, and fig. 3, output "TO SECOND CHARGE MANAGING PORTION 223");

Art Unit: 2136

- Receiving said accounting information at said master information processing apparatus from said at least one information processing apparatus sent in response to said proxy account settlement information (col. 15, lines 12-36, fig. 3, ref. num 251/252, fig. 5, and fig. 3, input "FROM SERVER I/F 24"),
- Said accounting information related to payment for said media contents (col. 15, lines 24-30),
- Said media contents received directly by said at least one information processing apparatus from said content provider (col. 14, lines 35-38);
- Generating payment information when said accounting information is processed at said master information processing apparatus (col. 16, lines 3-21);
- Transmitting said payment information to said content provider (col. 16, lines 18-21); and
- Receiving registration conditions from said content provider (fig. 2, ref. num 211/221/222/223, received from the "CONTRACT INFO" from the transmitting station),
 - Wherein the registration conditions are prepared in response to receiving said payment information from the master information processing apparatus that settle payment for media contents received directly by said at least one information processing apparatus (col. 16, lines 34-59).

Regarding claim 9, Matsuzaki et al. teaches wherein said control apparatus includes a service provider (col. 1, lines 13-15).

Regarding claim 10, Matsuzaki et al. teaches wherein said information processing system includes an electronic music distribution system (col. 1, lines 9-13).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. Claim 11 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Matsuzaki et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,289,314) as applied to claim 8 above

Regarding claims 11 and 12, Matsuzaki et al. teaches all the limitations of claim 8, above. However, Matsuzaki et al. does not teach wherein said first transmitter transmits said appropriate proxy account settlement information to said at least one information processing apparatus over a local-area network and wherein said second transmitter in said master information processing apparatus transmits said accounting information to said control apparatus over a wide-area network.

Although Matsuzaki et al. does not teach the limitations of claims 11 and 12, it is well known in the art to use any number of ways to communication information from one device to the next. Some ways that are well known are over a local bus, as in the Matsuzaki et al. reference, over cable, wireless transmission, POTS, LAN, WAN, or any other hierarchy that allows multiple devices to communicate.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made, to use a LAN for communication of the proxy account settlement information to the information processing apparatus and a WAN for communication of the accounting information to the control apparatus. It would have been obvious to perform these actions because a LAN and WAN both allow communications to occur between devices which are physically separated, thus allowing the communications to be more functional and involve a broader range of devices.
